

Vicki L. Malick
Health Education Analyst
Office of Research on Women's Health
Office of the Director

Vicki L. Malick is currently on detail to the Office of Research on Women's Health (ORWH), Office of the Director from the Office of Intramural Research, Office of the Director to administer the recently created Intramural Program for Research on Women's Health. Ms. Malick also serves in an Acting capacity as Communications Director for ORWH.

Ms. Malick received her Bachelor's of Science degree from the University of Maryland, University College in Management Studies in 1999. She received her Associate of Arts degree in Medical Assisting from Montgomery College graduating in 1978.

Ms. Malick has been an employee of the National Institutes of Health since 1976. Ms. Malick spent 11 years handling the administrative duties of recruiting physicians and dentists in the Medical Staff Fellowship Program Office, which later became the Office of Education, Office of Intramural Research. She administered the Clinical Research Training Program for Medical and Dental Students for the first four years and handled the Clinical Electives Program for Medical and Dental Students for six years. Ms. Malick also handled the administrative duties for the Graduate Medical Education Program for NIH for two years. Ms. Malick also spent five months on detail to the Office of Communication and Public Liaison and several months in the Office of Intramural Research prior to coming to the Office of Research on Women's Health.

Ms. Malick helped start a non-profit organization and has served as Vice President and President of Diabetics Educating and Empowering Diabetics, (DEED) Inc. She has also served in many capacities with the American Diabetes Association including a member of the Board of Directors, Washington DC Area Affiliate and Vice President and President of the Montgomery County Chapter.

Ms. Malick has received numerous awards including the Medical Assisting Academic Award, Group Award for the Medical Information System, several Outstanding Performance Awards, On-the-Spot Awards and Quality Step Increase Awards. She also is a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and Alpha Phi Alpha Honor Society.

In Ms. Malick's spare time she works with non-profit Beagle Rescue organizations and animal shelters to place beagles in foster homes and through adoptions.

Joyce Rudick

Joey Ruddy

